SANDHILLS,

WITLEY,

GODALMING.

Dear Sir

Mrs^m Bell of have sent on your letter of Sep.

16. You are very welcome to publish with music my words 'Up the airy mountain'

and

Wishing -

on condition that they be given correctly & unaltered, as in the edition of 1877, - adopting one small change I have since made in the Fairies, namely

'Hid among the lakes'

(instead of 'Deep within the lakes').

In giving similar permission in this country I always ask to be allowed to see a proof before going to press.

Truf yours

W. Allingham,
